

Easter "Opening" To-morrow

Souvenirs in All Departments on All Floors.

Every lady knows that the Suits and Dresses at the Palais Royal are all superior; that none are freaks, none passe, none too dear or too cheap; that each is marked at a price only possible with a cash business.

10 per cent Discount To-morrow

One-tenth Off the Price Marked on Each.

With more exclusive styles than in any exclusive store, with many of the garments bought and marked at very much less than actual values, because of the stagnation of business in Philadelphia, and of the late great and advantageous purchases, the "Opening" Souvenir of 10 per cent discount will be heartily appreciated by to-morrow's visitors. Note that you deduct one-tenth from the mark on the price ticket on each garment, so that the $16.50 suits will cost you $14.85; the $50 suits will be only $45.00; and all garments at the many intermediate prices will be one-tenth less than other days.

Accessories.

The Hats and other articles at $7.56 and up shall be yours at 10 per cent discount—if you say you saw the announcement in The Herald. Note that this is a special souvenir only for the readers of this newspaper.

$1 articles for to-morrow..... 89c
50c articles for to-morrow..... 44c
25c articles for to-morrow..... 21c

Only 89c for the $1 Shirt Waists, Gloves, Lingerie, Swiss Ribbed Underwear, Jewelry, every one of the tens of thousands of articles you find marked $1.00.

At 44c, instead of 50c, and 21c instead of 25c, are Hose, Underwear, Neckwear, Handkerchiefs, Jewelry, &c. All new, all the needed accessories of the Easter gown and hat.

At 21c instead of 25c are similar articles to those quoted above, only less elaborate. None cheap looking; all selected by experts whose good taste has made them famous in the trade.
